'We should glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he is our salvation, our life and our resurrection; through him we are saved and made free.' [Antiphon for Feast of the Holy Cross next Friday 14th September]

September Diary:

10th – Ecumenical clergy meeting Bakewell.
11th – Finance committee meeting in presbytery at 7-30pm.
13th – PPC AGM 7.30pm in the Narthex, Bakewell Church.
20th – Association of Bakewell Christians' meeting at 7-30pm.
21st – BBQ evening for all who can make it but we are especially inviting our younger parishioners including altar servers & friends plus parents along with Rachel & Ruth en route to Australia! Tickets are on sale @ £3.50 and you may be asked to give a helping hand with a bit of cooking or cleaning! We need 2 or 3 BBQ grills for the evening: if you can help with this, please contact Peter Marsh. Many thanks!
26th – Diamond wedding anniversary of Cliff & Rita Mann. Mass will be 11-00am in Hassop on this occasion and we hope to make it a very joyful celebration of the Eucharist.

A Word of thanks to all who helped with last Sunday's celebration of Solomon's First Communion – Elizabeth (our Catechist), Christine and the Young Musicians & Readers who so nicely held together our liturgy and prayer, Solomon and his parents Elsie & Stanley and their visitors, our altar servers Emily & Frances and indeed ALL who participated in the Mass. A special word of gratitude is due to Elsie & Stanley for the beautiful meal they offered to us after the celebration. Many, many thanks ... and we look forward to the next one!

Jennie & John Lovett would like to say a big "thank you" to us all for our prayers and good wishes during Jennie's hospital stay. Jennie is now home and making progress.

The Catholic Children's Society Boxes – the time has come to send the money to the C.C.S. office. Please leave your boxes in either of the churches for collection and counting by Tessa Clarke

Christian Meditation: - there is a 6 week course being run from 12th September 7.30pm in the Parish Room of Our Lady of Perpetual Succour, Gibfield Lane, Belper. Taped talks by Fr John Main. All welcome.

RACIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY is remembered this Sunday and it is organised by Church groups in Britain and Ireland.

The AGM of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) takes place next Thursday, 13th Sept., and after it Col. Leslie Wright will give a talk entitled "Some thoughts on Pilgrimages". Nominations to the PPC are guided by the CONSTITUTION (as mentioned in the bulletin from 18th August onwards). We have 5 vacancies at present and we hope to fill these. As I already mentioned, parishioners willing to undertake this service for the parish are invited to submit a written nomination proposing them and seconding them. These written nominations are sent to myself as the parish priest and can come from any parishioner willing to accept the commitment to serve our parish as a member of the PPC. They then become a matter for the election process. A generous availability for the meetings is a "must". In order to do some preparation, Deacon John, at my request, has invited some parishioners to consider membership of the PPC and I am most grateful for this preparation for the meeting on Thursday. Other nominations can be submitted up to next Tuesday 11th Sept. and these would be most welcome. Therefore, do please feel free to present nominations from parishioners according to the CONSTITUTION and its requirements. Again, my thanks for your help and willingness to serve the parish, Fr Hugh HELP FOR THE SVP: Please donate any unwanted crockery, cutlery, cooking utensils, bedding, pots, pans, etc for the SVP Furniture Store in Sheffield. This is to help with start up packs for the many homeless families who arrive in Sheffield to help get them started in their new homes. Contact Chris Holmes (01298 872200) Pat Skidmore (01629 812678) or any SVP member. We are able to help with collections.

Celebration of 'Bakewell at Work' will be held in the Methodist church from 15th-17th September.

We remember the sick and housebound in our prayers.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Doris Hennigan, Peter Power, Betty Watkins, Winifred Naylor and Constance Wooton. May their souls rest in peace.
