'The moral test of government is how it treats those who are in the dawn of life, the children; those who are in the twilight of life,, the aged; and those who are in the shadows of life – the sick, the needy and the handicapped.'

(Late Hubert Humphrey, U.S. politician just before he died & quoted in The Tablet 30/4/11 p.17)

This weekend we welcome Anthony Kilbride to the parish: Anthony is the son of Tim & Cathy and works in Haiti. He will give a short talk in the parish rooms after the 10.00am Mass in Hassop for about 10 minutes followed by refreshments. Last year parishioners and friends gave two donations to help in Haiti – one through CAFOD (£700.00) and one through the CSSp Superior General's appeal for help (£400.00). Anthony will bring us up to date on the present situation there.

Diary of the month:

9th Liturgy Group Meeting, 7.30pm in the parish rooms.

12th Social Committee meets in presbytery at 1.00pm to prepare for the Summer Fair held on 11th June. You will be asked to help with our preparations in the next few weeks.

11th and 26th (7.30pm) two identical evenings in the parish rooms to look at the new Mass translation that we shall be using later this year. Roger Burkey is arranging both evenings. On the first evening, we suggest that the Readers, Eucharistic Ministers, and Liturgy Group attend. On the second evening, we suggest the Choir, PPC and Welcomers attend. All parishioners who can are invited to attend one of these evenings so, please, do your very best to come along as part of the parish family. Related to this topic, Bishop Malcolm McMahon writes to us, "The Bishops earnestly request that all parishes offer preparatory formation from May so that the faithful are aware of the forthcoming changes..." (letter dated 8th April).

14th An important ecumenical celebration with a barbecue at the Methodist Manse in Bakewell from 2.30pm onwards. Like the earlier celebration, the different church communities of Bakewell will be asked to talk a little about our common vision as Christians in today's world and in Bakewell. We need parishioners to help for this occasion.

15th Christian Aid Week opens: there will be a united evening service at the Parish Church in Bakewell at 6.00pm and other activities will be announced nearer the date.

20th 7.00pm Mass at St Mary's School Chesterfield

Urgently Needed Helpers for Christian Aid Week especially on the Saturday 21st May, which will be a "big day". Street collectors, cake makers and refreshment helpers all needed. If you can help here or in any other way, please call Geoff & Sue Marsh on 01629 812 979.

Vocations Sunday will be celebrated next weekend. There will be a second collection for clergy formation.

For Young People Between 16 – 30 Years a weekend at St Mary's College Oscott for young people from 17 – 19th June. Further details on notice boards or from Fr Hugh.

Parish Retreat: Takes place next month at Ampleforth from teatime on Friday, 24th to after lunch on Sunday, 26th June. Hopefully this will enable those unable to join the previous midweek retreats to attend. Poster at the back of church and flyers are available this weekend, Peter Peel is the contact person for arrangements.

Walsingham Pilgrimage takes place on 19th June. See notice boards for the programme.

Parish Summer Fair is taking shape! Raffle tickets are available and, as is usually done, a request is made for the three cash prizes of the raffle. This is a great help.

At long last Fr Hugh has won the 1st prize in the 100 Club: Anthony might be the next one – the Anthony who has a membership, that is! The other winners were K. Rodrigues, M. Trend and P. Molloy.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant along with Chris Holmes.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Clare Fletcher. May her soul rest in peace
