On being lukewarm: 'O Lord, have mercy on me. I find myself without love, without confidence and without good desires. Jesus, my Lord, abandon me not. Reach out your hand and draw me from the depths of the lukewarm life into which I have fallen.'

Good News for Sunday morning parking! Mr Tom Chapman (senior) has very kindly agreed for us to use Hassop Hall car park (the main car park opposite the front entrance) on Sunday mornings only. This will greatly help our parking problems on Sundays but we have to be very careful not to abuse this kind consideration and be clear of the car park by 11.30 because the hotel has its own needs as well. Parishioners use this car park at their own risk and there is a letter from Hassop Hall on the notice boards which guides us all as regards parking there. It is now for us to use the facilities being offered!

Parish Directory: If you did not get your copy of the new edition during the three weekends on which it was distributed please contact Fr Hugh or Roger Burkey.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially Maureen Crabbe and Alan Clarke. We also remember Fr Seamus Hunter CSSp whose funeral takes place on Tuesday. May their souls rest in peace.

Theatre trip: Saturday, 24th March to see the Sound of Music (matinée show in Buxton) is planned by Jane. If you would like to go, please keep the afternoon free and let Jane know by this weekend that you are interested. Price is £12.50 payable to Jane. The community bus will take folks to and from Buxton. There are still four seats free and it would help the finances if these could be filled!

Friday Lent Soups take place in parish rooms after Mass and shorter Way of the Cross. Volunteers are still needed to make the soup. Please get in touch with Juliet if you can help with a soup and donations will be added to our Lent Jars to help the mission clinic in Marange (Zimbabwe).

Our Lenten Season continues throughout March so don't give up just yet! Two Lent jars made the long journey from Hassop church to the parish rooms last Sunday ... and, then, were promptly left there! Oh! Lord, please give me patience again! The Stations of the Cross, which is simply a meditation on Good Friday, are prayed in Bakewell.

Diocesan Annual Marriage Mass will be celebrated in the Cathedral, Nottingham with Bishop Malcolm on Sunday 11th March at 3.00pm. This celebration is an effort at the diocesan level to promote family and marriage values. It would be wonderful if we could have some parishioners to represent us on that afternoon. Transport available and, if wanted, please get in touch with Fr Hugh.

CAFOD is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year and is organising a social event for June 2012. If you are interested in joining CAFOD for the occasion, please look up their web site.

Card-carrying Catholics: Bishop Seamus Cunningham of Hexham & Newcastle Diocese mentions the faith card that will be available shortly for those who would like to have one (The Tablet 25 February p. 15). Bishop Seamus says, "The card is a mission tool ... (a symbol) ... Jesus repeatedly used signs and symbols to teach and to serve his mission." It will be the size of a credit card so be careful you don't get mixed up with your faith card and your credit card!

Sick and Housebound: We remember Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant, Chris Holmes, Janet Smith and Joan Mason along with all the sick of our families and friends.
