Prisoners' Sunday is remembered on 18th November:

Archbishop Vincent Nichols writes, "As president of PACT [Prison Advice & Care Trust] I commend the charity's work to you, and would be most grateful if you could join with me in prayer for all prisoners and their families". PACT invites the St Vincent de Paul Society to remember them and their mission on this Sunday in November.

In November we have the opportunity to remember our deceased family members and all whom we carry in prayer at a national, parish and family level. The usual Pious List Envelopes are available for use.

4th This Sunday afternoon, in Bakewell Agricultural Centre at 2.30pm we have the service for the farming community. We have been asked to lead some of the prayers. The service is open to all ... the BAC can be chilly!

11th Remembrance Sunday next week

12th R E Group c/o Jane Horton

13th Ecumenical clergy meeting

15th Deanery meeting

17th Day for Catechists with Bishop Malcolm

18th 'Living Simply – What steps can we take together?' at the Friends Meeting House in Bakewell (see leaflets)

19-21st Ampleforth Retreat c/o Peter Peel

22nd Parish Pastoral Council meeting in parish rooms

27th Social Committee meets to plan Christmas Fair 2pm

28th Finance meeting at 7.30pm parish rooms

29th Liturgy meeting at 7.30pm parish rooms

Hassop Sewerage News!! You will see signs informing us that there will be road disruption around Hassop in November. We hope our weekend Mass schedule will not be unduly affected but you may need more time to get here and do please remember about Hassop Hall parking on Sundays until 11.30am. Thanks to all who use it! This is proving to be a huge help to our Sunday morning parking.

The October 'head count': first weekend we had 126 people attending Mass, 2nd w/end 130, 3rd w/end 139 and last w/end we had 123 people at the 2 Masses. As you will see from the figures, there is a certain stability with our weekend Mass attendance but, at the same time, there seems to be some fluidity as well. The Year of Faith calls us to be focused and especially to have an attachment to the Eucharist in living out our Catholic Faith. The Mass attendance at our celebrations for All Saints and All Souls days was not particularly good – in fact, quite poor.

Good News Distributors – yes, those folk who walk around Bakewell to distribute our little ABC monthly magazine will have a tea party on 17th November in the Methodist Church Hall at 3.30pm. They are not getting any younger but they would love to have more helpers ... just strolling around the town on a nice autumn afternoon once per month doing a little bit of service on behalf of the local churches. One "senior citizen" parishioner has done this task for years - we are very grateful to him for that service.

Parish Finances – always catch the eye!!! You see the weekly statement about our parish Offertory collections above and the special collections taken in the parish. You also see our Gift Aid returns when these are sent from the Diocese. We are most grateful to all who quietly hold things in place and do their little jobs behind the scenes – collectors, counters, bookkeepers, etc. all of which takes time and commitment. Thanks to you all but especially to the people who support the parish and its financial needs. This week our Gift Aid returns for 2 quarters have been sent to us: £3,572.32. Once again, gratitude to all who use this system and do consider using it if you don't already do so.

The St Barnabas Society Newsletter is available for reading: this is the Society that gives financial help to married clergy and vowed religious of other churches if and when they seek full Communion with the Catholic Church.

A choice of Missals and our parish diary (50p) are still available for you to buy! Prices vary – if you have a problem and think you are paying too much (!!), call on Fr Hugh for help. *The Catholic Herald*s are not going these days ... MISSIONWIDE is still on the tables of both churches ... Strangely, more people from outside rather than from inside the parish are buying the missals.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant, Chris Holmes, Janet Smith and Joan Mason. Also, Fr Trevor Clarke is still in hospital and struggling with post-surgery complications.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Mary Sheldon and John Tasker. May their souls rest in peace
