October remains a month dedicated to the Rosary. Why not say a part of the Rosary quietly at home or on the bus or strolling around? "Finger rosaries" help to do this as we walk or stroll or travel alone!

Last Monday evening we had a meeting in the parish rooms to discuss the future of our R E group. We are very fortunate to have in our parish 4 catechists who completed the Bishop's course in Matlock last autumn-through-to- summer. Carol McDermott, Liz Marsh, Mickey Etchells and Vicky Dooley all stayed with the course and have generously accepted to help out in our R E plans for younger parishioners. Two families were represented at Monday's meeting and many thanks to those parents who came along to share in the discussion. Without the parents' support, such pastoral efforts grind to a halt. You will see on the table in Hassop church some missals and prayer books for our young and, if they help, please use them. They do cost money and, therefore, should be seen as parish property unless you would like to have a personal copy to take home for use there with the children.

Our next meeting is 4th November 5.00pm in parish rooms. We also hope to offer some refreshments after the Mass for our young parishioners just for them! We'll work this out.

Last Sunday visitors from London who joined us for the Holy Hour in this Year of Faith said how nice the Holy Hour was and what a pity so few people attended it. Thanks again to those who participated and prepared it. The Year of Faith will close on 24th November, the feast of Christ the King. There are tentative plans to have our historic vestments on display at this time but we await confirmation

The October 'head count': Last weekend we had 62 people present at the Vigil Mass in Hassop and 58 at the Sunday morning Mass in Bakewell, making a total of 120. The same weekend last year we had 126 over the weekend. Welcomers, please arrange for the count again.

Many, many thanks to all who supported the Quiz evening last Saturday: 35 people enjoyed the evening and £358.00 was raised for parish funds and needs. Thanks go especially to the Social Committee who finished everything at nearly 11.00pm.

7th December (a Saturday) there will be two important happenings – (1) our Christmas Fair in Bakewell and (2) Nottingham Diocese will be holding a resource day in order to encourage the
