'Remembrance is part of our culture, our heritage. In November the Church pauses to remember and pray for the faithful departed... By November 1914 there were 60 Catholic chaplains in the army... Catholic and Anglican chaplains ministered side by side... In total 16 Irish chaplains were killed or died of their wounds in WWI including Fr Willie Doyle S J.' [Mgr E Thynne Intercom Nov.2014 p 17]

Diary for November:

1st Sunday of November next week- Mass times above - Baptism of Agnes in Hassop

3rd All Souls Day – Mass at 9.30am in Hassop and 6.15pm in Bakewell with members of the Catenians present. People can take Holy Communion at both Masses. After the evening Mass, the Catenians have a meal in Gt Longstone to which all are invited. Further details next weekend.

4th Social Committee meeting (?) at noon in presbytery

8th Baptism of Pere Mahiques at noon

9th Remembrance Sunday – We will observe our period of silence at the end of the 10.00am Mass. ●●We also have the children's liturgy & activities in parish rooms.

12th S V P meeting after morning Mass

13th Deanery meeting

15th Baptism of Hannah Rose

22nd Faith & Families – a diocesan conference led by Bishop John Sherrington. Details are on notice boards.

25th Parish Finance Committee meets 7pm in presbytery

27th Belper pre-Confirmation group (Fr Hugh)

29-30th Parish Christmas Fair – now in Hassop. Please read the attached flyer and remember these dates!

Season of Advent begins the weekend of 29-30th November. We will be invited to enter into the deep message of Salvation History during the weeks of Advent and there will be opportunities to ponder what it is to be an Advent person living and praying in the Church.

In December – Saturday 13th we have our Advent Penitential Service with Fr David Pember coming to help us for this Sacrament of Mercy that we celebrate in the Church

Some beautiful cards are being printed and will be on sale. The photographs of Hassop church are excellent and the cards are all-purpose cards with no particular text inside. Bill McDermott took the photographs – thanks, Bill!

100 Club Renewals – please renew as soon as possible! New members would help to boost our numbers.

Raffle Tickets are ready in both churches. We're also looking for donations towards the cash prizes. Some parishioners have already generously responded with these.

This past week we've had a meeting with an architect to look at the fabric of Hassop church. There is much to keep in mind about the roof and the stone work as we look towards its bi-centenary beginning in 2016. Also, the meters in both churches were correctly read (one hopes!). A new meter has been installed in Hassop. One local parish was found to have paid £11,000.00 in excess of what was due. A wise parishioner discovered this and a refund given.

World Mission Sunday: the collection last Sunday was £275.27 and this has been sent to MISSIO. It has been pointed out to MISSIO that we are a small parish and we do not support every appeal they make but we try to generously support Mission Sunday + the mission appeal. Of course, we also support CAFOD and other needy causes through our Lent Jars. Our thanks to all who share & help.

New TRAI DCRAFT/ Fair Trade arrangements: the table will now be open for business on the second Sunday of each month in Hassop only. We'll continue to offer good quality products from small producers from across the world. Advent calendars and other festive products available from 9th November when this new arrangement starts. Thank you for your generous support. Linda Brooks

Angela Gillespie Youth Service Director is organising events for young people. Such an event takes place on Tuesday 18th November 7-9pm in St Anne's Buxton. We should really try to support this effort for young people.

3rd Week 'head count': Bakewell Mass 45 (28 last year) Hassop Mass 79 (77 last year). Last week this weekend.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Audrey Brooks, Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, David Hurd, Peggy Johnson and Eileen Simpson along with the sick of our families, friends and those on admission to hospital for treatment and recovering from surgery.

November month of the Holy Souls – We remember our departed ones – the usual envelopes are available. Your November prayer intentions will be remembered at Mass.

Anniversaries: We pray this week for Frs John Doman IC (Leicester) and John Moriarty CSSp (Dublin) who died recently as well as for our family members.

May their souls rest in peace

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £128.50 Loose Plate Hassop £95.09 Bakewell £38.75 Total £262.34
Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!
